

track&trail
ADVENTURES

Wilderness Medicine Update for the Backcountry March 22 - 26 '10 Terrace BC, Canada - Northern Escape Heli-Skiing

After the resounding success of Track & Trail Adventures' SOLD-OUT March 2009 Therapeutic Update in Emergency Medicine, a CME meeting in heli-ski country, we are proud to announce its follow-up conference: Wilderness Medicine Update for the Backcountry.

This CME provides 22 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits through the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) and up to 22 FAWM Credits through the Wilderness Medical Society (WMS).

www.TandTadventures.com

CME venue: the Yellow Cedar Lodge, home to Northern Escape Heli-Skiing/Boarding - one of North America's top ski destinations.

Limited spots available for privileged guests to enjoy four days of educational time paired with powder-filled adventures in the Skeena Mountain Range; a two hour Air Canada flight north of Vancouver.

Tuition is $645(+5% tax) paired with an optional four day heli-ski/boarder package for $4890 (+5% tax). Prices listed in Canadian funds; a significant advantage for American delegates. Package includes four night's accommodation, all gourmet meals, guiding service, powder ski/transceiver rental and four days of heli-skiing/boarder in one of the world's most pristine and powder stocked environments (includes 57,500 feet of vertical).

Curriculum has been developed to provide a therapeutic update in emergency medicine specific for the unique clinical situations found in wilderness settings. Tracks include backcountry critical care, high altitude medicine, hypothermia, wilderness orthopedics and mountain-rescue ethics. Physicians will also be working with trained guides in avalanche terrain – learning and practicing scene assessment, safe travel in hazardous conditions and search and rescue techniques - taking education beyond the classroom.

Full conference details and its snow-filled opportunities can be found at www.TandTadventures.com

This conference is sponsored by the American College of Emergency Physicians, Cal/ACEP, WMS and Track & Trail Adventures Inc. Conference inquires and registrations are made through Track & Trail Adventures 1.888.308.3007 toll free or jim@tandtadventures.com.

Faculty

Head Faculty, Grant Lipman, MD- Clinical Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine at Stanford University Hospital and Associate Director of Stanford's Wilderness Medicine Fellowship. grantlip@hotmail.com

John Forrest - A certified ACMG ski guide, level two Professional Member of the Canadian Avalanche Association, certified instructor for the Canadian Avalanche Association, president of Heli-Cat Canada, Wilderness Medical Technician, level three CSGA guide (Canadian Ski Guide Association) and certified Blaster.

Scott McKee - MD, MPH, FACP

Chief of Staff of Shuswap General Hospital and Clinical Assistant Professor of Medicine at the University of British Columbia. Works as an Internist and Critical Care Physician at the Shuswap, Kamloops, and Revelstoke hospitals in B.C.

Carlton Heine MD, PhD - Assistant Medical Director of the Emergency Department at Skagit Valley Hospital in Bellingham Washington and Clinical Instructor of Medicine at the University of Washington.

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies for the Accreditation Council of Continuing Medical Education through joint sponsorship of ACEP, CAL/ACEP, and Track and Trail Adventures, Inc. The American College of Emergency Physicians is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Emergency Physicians designates this educational activity for a maximum of 22 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit (s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Approved by the American College of Emergency Physicians for 22 hour (s) of ACEP Category I credit.

Book Today, Space Limited 1.888.308.3007 toll free www.TandTadventures.com

Track & Trail Adventures proudly supports

